**Call to Worship* (Psalm 139:7-12)

O Lord, because you have searched us and because you have known us,

We enjoy a place of quiet rest.

O Lord, because you know when we sit down and when we rise up,

We enjoy a place of sweet comfort.

O Lord, because you are beside us always, behind us and before us, always guiding us,

We enjoy a place of full release.

O Lord, because we cannot go anywhere unless your love and spirit are with us,

We are always near to the heart of you, O Lord.

**Opening Hymn* “There Is a Place of Quiet Rest”

#824

Call to Confession

Prayer of Confession

O Redeemer God, draw us close to your presence now, especially now, as we begin our confession. Because you have already searched us, because you already know us, there is no need for me to shy away from disclosing to you my sins. What have I done this week that was not right? You already know. What have I said this week that was not said in love? You already know. How have I hurt others this week? You already know. How have I hurt myself this week? You already know. Hear me now as I silently confess my sins—my sins which you already know...
